Tenant-In-Common Association Elects New Board of Directors

INDIANAPOLIS — January 16, 2008 — The Tenant-In-Common Association (TICA) announces its 2008 Board of Directors. One new registered representative, two new broker/dealers and three new sponsor members were elected to TICA's Board of Directors.

Renee Brown, Wildwood Wealth Management, was re-elected to serve a two-year term as a registered representative on the Board of Directors. In the broker/dealer category, Mark Kosanke, Professional Asset Management, and Richard Chess, American Realty Capital Markets, were both elected to a two-year term. In the sponsor category, Brian Eliason, Eliason 1031 Properties Corporation and Marc Paul, SCI Real Estate Investments LLC, will serve two-year terms. Randy Beckman, Triple Net Properties will serve a one-year term.

“TICA is looking forward to having these individuals serve on the Board of Directors,” Patricia DelRosso, TICA president said. “The new board members will bring new ideas and perspectives that will benefit the association and industry as a whole.”

TICA's Board of Directors also elected a new treasurer and secretary. Mark Kosanke will be the treasurer, and John Temple will serve as secretary. Patricia DelRosso, Inland Real Estate Exchange Corporation, will continue her two-year term as president; effective January 1, 2009 Bill Winn, current president-elect will become president.

As per TICA's bylaws, sponsor members vote for sponsor candidates, broker/dealer members vote for broker/dealer candidates and registered representatives members vote for registered representative candidates.
